

Our Historical Giving

For a variety of reasons, we do not always continue to fund organizations. Sometimes organizations outgrow us and are able to acquire larger grants or fund their own projects through a new income stream. Sometimes a leadership change can make a partnership between us much more difficult. Here we have outlined programs we supported at one time but are no longer supporting.

Niger

Sahara Relief
Sahara Desert Region, Niger
www.sahararelief.org

Sahara Relief focuses on providing healthcare services to rural communities in the Sahara Desert, particularly to women and children. The Forgotten International supported their efforts to start their first clinic in Niger.

Uganda

Zinunula Omunaku Educational Center
(ZOEC)

Kiryagonja, Uganda

The Zinunula Omunaku Educational Center is a school in a remote and underserved village. We supported them with school supplies, helped build a classroom, and sent a fellow to teach for a summer.

India

Butterflies

New Delhi, India

<http://www.butterflieschildrights.org/>

Butterflies focuses on supporting street children and child laborers with much-needed services such as health, legal aid, counseling, financial, cultural, arts, sports, and vocational training. TFI has provided winter blankets for the street children, donated toys and sports equipment and made small grants to support their work.

The Greenfield Paramount School Kusumpur Village, New Delhi, India

The Greenfield Paramount School focuses on low-cost or free education to children in the slums of New Delhi. TFI supported the program through tuition for children whose families could not afford it, as well as made a donation of clothing and small toys.

Pingalwara Charitable Society

Punjab, India

<http://www.pingalwara.co/>

Pingalwara provides shelter, clinics, and education to underprivileged and underserved members of the community, including homeless, disabled, and those fighting serious ailments.

Tibetan Nuns Project
Dharamsala, India
<http://tnp.org/>

Tibetan Nuns Project provides basic needs as well as secures housing, medical care, and education for refugee nuns escaping China.

Thailand

Suan Lahu
Northern Thailand
<http://suanlahu.org/>

Suan Lahu is an organic coffee farm supporting the ethnic Lahu community. We focused on supporting their cultural education program, providing a classroom for traditional as well as vocational and cultural education. You can view the video of the community members building the bamboo school for their kids here.

The Christian Foundation for the Blind
Lopburi, Thailand

The Christian Foundation for the Blind provides housing and education and therapy to children who are blind, and/or have physical or mental disabilities. The education includes daily life skills, reading and writing Braille, and various vocational skills.

Good Shepherd School

Bangkok, Thailand

<http://www.goodshepherdbangkok.com/>

The Good Shepherd School is a residence and educational center for children, teens, young women, and young mothers. Education includes vocational training and traditional schooling.

Green Bamboo Shelter

Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam

Green Bamboo Shelter in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, helps street children learn the basic skills they need to become independent. It provides access to education, French and English language classes, and both short and long-term housing.

School for Life

Chiang Mai, Thailand

<http://www.school-for-life.de/>

School for Life in Chiang Mai, Thailand, provides shelter, quality education, vocational training and a family housing environment for AIDS-orphans, tsunami survivors, abused and neglected children, and children who were forced into child labor.

USA

Leadership Public Schools – Richmond

Richmond, California

<http://www.leadps.org/>

Leadership Public School is in an underserved community in Richmond, California, and is dedicated to motivating its students academically and supporting them emotionally to set their standards high with the ultimate goal of every student going to college after graduation. We supported the school to provide books for the Freshman English class.

San Francisco International High School

San Francisco, California

<http://international-sfusd-ca.schoolloop.com/>

San Francisco International High serves children of immigrants and recently immigrated youths. We helped the school by providing ESL books for their library and a variety of language dictionaries for the students.